Class Descriptions: Fall, 2009

Kingdom Comers Dr. John Bechtle, Teacher Room 202

"We Three Kings" – Saul, David and Solomon set the course for their nation, and their lives are full of lessons in how (or how NOT) to leave a heritage that glorifies God. At some points, we will step behind the scenes to hear them tell the "inside story" as recorded in Psalms. Someone sees you as a leader; how will you carry out that responsibility?

The Christian & Today's Culture Mr. John King, Teacher Room 204

Tactics for Defending the Faith – Many believers would find it easier to share their faith if they knew skillful ways to initiate a conversation. Our class will study the "Tactics for Defending the Faith" curriculum by Greg Koukl of Stand To Reason (www.str.org), which presents an artful method for discussing or defending your Christian convictions. Class sessions will include DVD sessions by Greg Koukl, role-playing exercises and handouts.

Shepherd's Flock Pastor Dave Lohse, Teacher Room 206

Choosing Victory, Overcoming Defeat – Joshua is more than just a book of history; it is a manual for the New Testament Christian who wants to get the upper hand in the battles of life. Learn how to take possession of your inheritance in Christ, find the key to strength and courage, succeed in your life mission, avoid the danger of falling away and other lessons for today.

Koinonia Mr. Jim Weaver, Teacher Room 208-210

Colossians – In the book of Colossians, the apostle Paul, guided by the Holy Spirit, presents truths that collide with the teachings of the world. He refutes man's view of existence, of the person and work of Christ, of ethics and of salvation by works. We will discuss these ideas in relation to our present situation in which we are called to stand for truth.

Cornerstone Mr. Dave Stashevsky, Teacher Room 212-214

Romans – Our current focus is an inductive study of Paul's letter to the church at Rome. You are welcome to join us for fellowship and instruction, designed to assist Christians in deepening their knowledge for the purpose of responding in obedience to His calling to live out our salvation.

Common Ground Mr. Keith Baldwin, Teacher Room 600/Portable

Romans – Join us as we explore the book of Romans, which presents the righteous revelation of God in the gospel and the world-changing implications of that message for followers of Christ. Romans has been called the "Cathedral of the Christian Faith" because of its profound theology and impressive style.

Homebuilders Mr. Byron Jensen, Teacher Room 601/Portable

Pursuing the Proverbs – The book of Proverbs, written by Solomon and others, provides critical insights for living a godly life. It reveals how to attain and use wisdom in practical ways. Selected themes in Proverbs will be taught by co-teachers: Chris Beiswenger, Kevin Downey, Don Helmer, Steve Miller, Pat Patterson and Allen Pope.

Youth: JrHi/SrHi Troy Cooper, Youth Minister Youth Center
