A new slate of Adult Bible Classes begins on Sunday, October 1, and will meet at 9 A.M. on Sunday mornings. Please see the class descriptions below. All are welcome!

The Gospel and Your Work

Why do you work? What's the significance of your work? That depends on the story you attach to your it. If the story of work is the story of achievement, then work is about making a name for yourself: obscurity to glory. If your story is the story of accumulation, then work is a means to comfort: poverty to privilege. If the story of work is the story of your making the world a better place, then work is the means of salvation, the journey from dystopia to utopia. What story is your work telling? Is your story about work true? That's the question we'll be considering during our 8 weeks together. This class will be taught by Andrew Jones and Dan Voelker.

Thinking Wisely About Suffering

Suffering is a reality of the human experience in our fallen world. Suffering also comes at us in various ways: physical, mental, emotional, spiritual. Where does it come from? Why does God allow it? Is there purpose and meaning to be found through suffering? Is my suffering punishment for my sins? Should I avoid it at all cost? How can I honor Christ in my suffering? How can I help others who are suffering? In this eight week class, we will try to understand suffering through the lens of Scripture to help equip ourselves and others to glorify God through seasons of suffering with Christ as our example and source of strength. This class will be taught by Tristan Lengacher.

Men's Discipleship Reading

The next Men's Discipleship Reading will be Wednesday, November 15, from 12:00-1:00 P.M. It will be "bring-your-own-lunch" style. This is another opportunity for men to gather, be equipped for discipleship, and continue to strengthen our relationships at Castleview.

Our next book will be Remember Death by Matthew McCullough. Please read the book before the meeting date. We will use our hour together to review the material and consider how the lessons apply in our personal lives and in the life of the church. Please reach out to Kelly Wright if you have any questions.

Save-the-Date: Women's Retreat (November 10-11)

Women of Castleview can make plans to attend the annual women's retreat on November 10-11. More information to come.

Men's and Women's Bible Studies

Women's Wednesday Morning Bible Study (September 6 - November 15, 2023, Wednesday mornings 9:15-11:15 A.M.)

Abide: A Study of 1, 2, and 3 John, by Jen Wilkin. In three short letters, the apostle John reminds the early church facing division, deception, and doubt to instead hold fast to what they know and to live like they believe it. This 10-week Bible study will help you see 2,000 years later the call to Christians in similar challenges to an assurance of salvation and to abide in God's Truth. This study will include weekly work to do at home, group discussion, and personal prayer. For more information and sign up, contact Doris Lloyd. Study guides will be available for purchase. No childcare will be available.

Men's & Women's Wednesday Evening Bible Studies (September 6 - November 15, 2023, Wednesday evenings 6:30-8:00 P.M.)

Jesus's Sermon on the Mount is a message worth hearing. It is for the ages. In this study, you will hear God's heart concerning real life issues. The Sermon on the Mount highlights a message of what it means to be a true follower of Christ, open to both Jewish and Gentile followers who hear and follow his message. For more information and sign up, contact Andy McNeilly for the Men's study or Cid McNeilly for the Women's. Study guides will be available for purchase for the Women's study only. For childcare, please register your children for the AWANA program.

Life Centers Need

Life Centers are in need of volunteers at the downtown location to help sort through donations items. This can be 3-4 hours per week and the volunteer can pick the day and time they can come in.

The Noblesville location is also in need of more volunteers, from counselors to support services (sorting, cleaning, etc.). They especially need volunteers on Thursdays and Fridays.

Further information and questions can be directed to Judy Testin.

Volunteer Facilities Team

Our facilities have needs. You have skills. Help us identify who to reach out to when building repair issues come up by clicking here to be added to our Volunteer Facilities Team. Spanish Church Need for Childcare

The Spanish church that meets in the fellowship hall on Sunday afternoons is looking for more help with childcare during their service. The time would be 4:00-5:30 P.M. and you do not need to speak Spanish to be able to help. If you have completed the necessary training and background check to help in Family Ministries at Castlevue, you are approved to help with childcare for the Spanish church. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Amy Rodas.

Castleview 101

Castleview 101 is the best place to learn who we are as a church, what we believe, and how you can participate in our life together. It also functions as the first step towards membership at Castleview.
